

---

MARY JO JAHNS MILLIGAN (1961-1999)
LdM Class of 1980

---

Libertyville Review (IL) - February 11, 1999

Mary Jo Milligan, 37, of Vernon Hills, died Jan. 27 at home. She was born Sept. 27, 1961 in Chicago, Ill.

She was a graduate of Marillac High School and Northern Illinois University. Besides being a homemaker, she was a member of Hawthorn PTO, St. Mary of Vernon Mom's Group. She was active in Girl Scouts and the Vernon Hills Park District, and a St. Mary of Vernon prep teacher.

She is survived by her husband, Glenn; son, Michael; daughters, Kate and Sarah; brothers, David, Jr. (Kathleen) Jahns of Appleton, Wisc.; Peter (Terra) Jahns of Rolling Meadows, Ill.; sister, Lucy Jahns (Kurt) Harris of Green Oaks, Ill.; her mother, Bernadette Jahns of Phelps, Wisc.; her father, David Jahns of Round Lake, Ill.; her grandmother, Stella Sobarnia, and many nieces and nephews. She was a dear friend of many.

Funeral services were Jan. 30 at the A.K. Barnett Funeral Home, Vernon Hills and continued to St. Mary of Vernon Church, Indian Creek with Interment in Ascension Cemetery, Libertyville. Memorial contributions can be made to the American Brain Tumor Association, Des Plaines, Ill., 827-9910.